

At its first meeting each July, the Board shall take at least the following actions:

A. Election of Officers

1. The current President shall preside over the election by the Board of a President.
2. In the event that the current President is no longer a member of the Board by the time of its first July meeting, the meeting shall be chaired by the Vice President until a new President is elected. In the event that neither the current President nor Vice President is a member of the Board at the time of its first July meeting, the Board member with the longest tenure on the Board shall preside until a new President is elected.
3. Any member of the Board may nominate any member of the Board, including him or herself, to serve as the President or Vice President. Once nominations are closed, all members of the Board shall vote for one member to serve as President. The person elected President shall then preside over the election of a Vice President.
4. In the event of a tie for the election of a President or Vice President, the candidate with the longest tenure on the Board shall be declared the winner. In the event all tied candidates for a position have the same length of service on the Board, the candidate who received the greatest number of votes in the last general election at which his or her name appeared on the ballot for Board elections shall be declared the winner.
5. The President and Vice President shall each serve for a term of one year and until their successors are elected and qualified, unless they resign prior to expiration of their terms. Both must be members of the Board.

B. The Board shall adopt a resolution establishing:

1. The day of the week and week of the month during which regular Board meetings shall be held;
2. The time of day at which regular Board meetings shall be held;
3. The alternate date and time of any meeting if the regular meeting date occurs on a legal holiday or a holiday specified by the Board;
4. The regular meeting place of the Board, and whether the Board intends to allow regular meetings to be adjourned to another time and place

C. The Board shall establish a calendar of due dates for reports it expects to receive during the fiscal year.

D. The Board shall adopt organizational procedures for the fiscal year.
